Chris Trevino - Associate

Chris Trevino is an Associate in RMWBH's Community Association Law Section based out of the firm's San Antonio Office. Chris assists single-family residential, condominiums, mixed-use, and commercial associations with corporate issues, drafting and amending governing documents, assessment collection, and deed restriction enforcement.

Prior to graduating from law school and starting his role as an attorney, Chris served as a law clerk with RMWBH where he collaborated with attorneys helping association and developers client navigate the corporate issues associated with operating non-profit entities.

In his role as an attorney, Chris enjoys communicating with community managers and board members about their day-to-day needs, as well as offering guidance and mentoring clients throughout the legal process.

Chris is a multi-level scholar with a bachelor's degree in Criminology from St. Mary's University and a Master of Science in Criminology from the University of Texas San Antonio Graduate School. He received his law degree from St. Mary's University School of Law.
