David Bledsoe - Shareholder

David Bledsoe is a Shareholder in the Corporate Section of RMWBH. His passion for law ignited early with a summer clerk position in high school, and it continued to grow over the course of undergraduate and graduate studies as he gained additional experience as a legal intern. After honing his skills as an Associate Attorney out of law school, David joined RMWBH where he represents a wide variety of clients ranging from local businesses to international enterprises.

David focuses on mergers and acquisitions, private equity, and capital markets, and also excels in recapitalizations, private offerings of securities, equity syndications, finance, divestitures, restructuring, joint ventures, and other complex corporate transactions. His practice also includes start-ups and entity formations, commercial contracts, and corporate governance.

David enjoys the challenge of helping clients obtain their goals and reach their ultimate growth potential. In addition to his role representing clients, David assists with the oversight and management of Associate Attorneys and Paralegals in the firm's Corporate Section.

David graduated magna cum laude from Lamar University in 2009 with a Bachelor of Business Administration and double major in Finance and Economics, and he earned his Juris Doctorate from South Texas College of Law in 2013 where he was the recipient of a Transactional Law Certificate. He is recognized as Peer Reviewed by Martindale Hubbell and as a Rising Star by the American Institute of Legal Advocates. David is a member of the State Bar of Texas and its business law and corporate counsel sections, and he is also a member of the American Bar Association and its business law section. David often participates in speaking engagements where he enjoys helping others in their education, career, and business pursuits.
