Laura M. Cabutto – Shareholder

Laura M. Cabutto is a Shareholder in the Litigation Section of RMWBH, where she focuses her practice on complex civil litigation and insurance defense. With more than 25 years of experience, Laura provides strategic, pragmatic representation designed to manage risk and achieve efficient, favorable outcomes on behalf of clients.

Civil Litigation

Laura has substantial experience handling complex civil litigation matters in multiple jurisdictions, including personal injury and wrongful death claims. She represents clients through all stages of litigation, from initial case evaluation and discovery through motion practice, alternative dispute resolution, and trial. Laura takes a solution-oriented approach to civil litigation, carefully analyzing factual and legal issues to develop strategies aligned with her clients' goals. Her experience allows her to assess exposure, evaluate liability, and advise clients on whether resolution or continued litigation best serves their interests.

Insurance Defense

Laura devotes a significant portion of her practice to insurance defense litigation, representing insurance carriers and their insureds in high-exposure matters. She brings a thorough understanding of claims handling, coverage considerations, and litigation strategy from a carrier perspective. Laura works closely with claims professionals to provide early case assessments, defend liability positions, manage litigation costs, and pursue timely, effective resolutions. Her experience enables her to align litigation strategy with carrier objectives while maintaining a disciplined and efficient defense approach.

Laura is committed to clear, consistent communication, and strategic collaboration with her clients. She provides practical guidance, regular case updates, and straightforward explanations of complex legal issues so clients can confidently make informed decisions throughout the litigation process. Laura views her role as a trusted advisor focused on problem-solving and results.

Laura earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of Arkansas and her Juris Doctor from the Thurgood Marshall School of Law at Texas Southern University.
